2.18.24

This past week, our students were learning in classrooms and on field trips! High school freshman classes are reading Romeo and Juliet while sixth graders are immersed in the novel The Hunger Games. Both stories about star-crossed lovers were well timed during the week of Valentine's Day! Juniors attended a college and career fair to explore post-secondary options. They interacted with different booths and represented NWMHS with pride.

This week is National FFA Week. This past week, students in FFA had an opportunity to attend the Farm and Machinery Show in Louisville. They were proud to share about our strong agricultural community with vendors, and we are proud of them! NWMHS will celebrate National FFA Week with spirit days and designated activities during lunch in the Ag shop. Below are the spirit days.

- 2/19: Wear Camo / Hunter's Orange
- 2/20: Wear Red, White, and Blue
- 2/21: Wear Flannel or Farmer Day
- 2/22: Wear FFA T-Shirt
- 2/23: Wear Tractor T-shirt

Mr. Martin has been visiting classrooms to discuss the scheduling process for next year. We are excited to offer some new courses for high school students. We are also working on transforming our middle school schedule to allow more instructional time for English Language Arts, Math, Social Studies, and Science. If you have any questions about the scheduling process or classes and electives, please contact Mr. Martin at dmartin@gccschools.com.
