

Mustang Memo

11.27.23

Welcome back to our students after a week-long break. We want to invite our students to participate in the festive fun as we prepare for the holiday break. See the calendar below for our themed dress-up days.

Finals will be given on Dec. 8, 11, and 12. Please use PowerSchool to check student grades and communicate with teachers any questions you may have about grades.

High school students:

Semester grades will be on students' transcripts. If a student is failing a class for the semester, they are in jeopardy of losing that credit and may need to retake the class.

Our Thanksgiving break was a great reminder of all we are grateful for in our school and community. Although classes were not in session, students' learning extended beyond the classroom in our athletic events and participation at Light up New Washington. Our students are representing NWMHS with PRIDE, and we appreciate your support of their endeavors.
