Hello Mustangs!

It's the time of the year when we collect items for our Champions for Children basket! This year, our theme is "For the Dogs." Please pick up items over the break and drop them off, or send them in with your student(s), on or before Wednesday, April 5.

As the weather gets warmer, please remember our District-wide dress code policy is in effect and will be enforced. The details can be read by clicking the link <https://nwmhs.gccschools.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/07/NWMHS-Student-Handbook-2022-2023-Board-Approved-5-10-22.pdf> and scrolling to page 32.

If a student is out of dress code, the student is sent to ISAP and given the opportunity to change into clothes that are within the dress code. We also have clothing in our clothes closet. As a last resort, clothes may be brought to the student.

PROUD Mustang Moment Alert: During our College and Career Fair, a vendor pulled me aside to share that he had been to several C&C Fairs in the area recently. He was impressed by you, Mustangs! He said you were very well-behaved, genuinely interested, and it was a pleasure to speak with you. He also commented that YOU were the best-dressed students in the area!

We are so proud of you for demonstrating your Mustang PRIDE in all that you do!

Our College and Career Fair was a huge success!

Thank you to Mrs. Sceifers, our visitors, our students, and our custodial staff for all of the work you put into making this a great event!

Thank you, Eastside Christian Church, for your generous donation that allowed our students in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes program to distribute “blessings in a bag.”

Thank you to Megan Chapman, Margo Davidson, and Sandra Schurr for sponsoring the FCA, and, thank you to our FCA students for blessing your fellow classmates.

The Clark County Health Department is offering clinics for the vaccinations required to attend school. Check out the schedule here: MarchApril2023 CCHD ENG and SPA Shot Clinic Invite Flyer.pdf
